- Activities and objectives are somewhat connected, but the link lacks clarity.
- Presents a clear and logical connection between activities and objectives.
- Activities and objectives are without a doubt strongly connected in a thoughtful way.

F2: Budget

- Budget is not reasonable, appropriate or aligned with workplan.
- Budget is somewhat reasonable and appropriate, but is only loosely aligned with workplan.
- Budget is clearly reasonable, appropriate and aligned with workplan.
- Presents an outstanding value for money and strong alignment with workplan.

Reviewer overall recommendation

Considering the proposal as a whole, do you think FSC should fund this project as a worthwhile contribution to the skills ecosystem?

Overall Recommendation:

- I recommend this project for funding
- I recommend this project for funding conditional on changes and/or more information
- I do not recommend this project for funding

Explain your reasoning for this recommendation.

My recommendation is to fund only 2 of the activities outlined in the proposal which are: hiring an alumni manager and development of standardized evaluation process / data collection process.

From my perspective, many of the other activities that they are proposing as a part of this new funding envelope are activities that they need to be (and probably are) undertaking anyways (e.g. partnership development for funding, formalizing relationships with outreach partners, outreach to new cohorts). Before considering giving this organization more funding, I would want to see more clearly 1) The findings / outcomes from the first round of funding beyond anecdotal info 2) A clear evaluation method and data collection process to be used going forward 3) A detailed knowledge dissemination program outlining who the stakeholders are that we are disseminating to, the schedule and format of engagement to distribute learnings.

In my perspective the activities that seem most valid from this proposal at this time are 1) The hiring of the Alumni Manager and 2) Development of standardized evaluation and data collection methods. These activities would require less than the funds requested. I think after these elements are in place, then the project could be considered further, but as it stands currently, it is largely funding blindly given limited tangible outcomes from the initial phase.

What do you think are the strongest aspects of this project?

This project is strong in involving relevant stakeholders in the design of the program, and it also does a great job outlining how it is rooted in equity, diversity and inclusion.

Where do you think the project has gaps or challenges?

This project is difficult to understand how it is materially different from "business as usual" beyond some more targeted wrap around support for program participants. Further, this project needs a framework to outline how its success will be measured and assessed going forward as measurable outcomes associated with this additional funding will be very challenging to obtain without this. For instance, it is not evidence based as there are no measures beyond anecdotal findings presented in this proposal from the existing funding. It is also unclear what the learnings were from the initial project and who is involved in the Knowledge Mobilization
